The Widow's Message to her Son "Remember, Denis, all I bade you say; Tell him we're well and happy, thank the Lord; But of our troubles since he went away You'll mind, avick, and never say a word, Of cares and troubles, sure, we've all our share,

The finest summer isn't always fair. "Tell him the spotted heifer calved in May, She died, poor thing; but that you needn't mind: Nor how the constant rain destroyed the hay; But tell him God was ever kind, And when the fever, spread the country

His mercy kept the 'sickness' from our door. "Be sure you tell him how the neighbors came And cut the corn and stored it in the barn; Twould be as well to mention them by name-Pat Murphy, Ned McCabe, and James Carn, And big Tim Daly from behind the hill; And say, agra—Oh, say I miss him still.

"They came with ready hands our toil to share-Twas then I missed him most-my own right hand—
I felt, although kind hearts were round me thre,

The kindest heart beat in a foreign land, Strong hand! brave heart! one severed far away from me By many a weary league of shore and sea.

"And tell him she was with us-he'll know who; Mayourneen, hasn't she the winsome eyes? The darkest, deepest, brightest, bonniest blue I ever saw. except in summer skies;
And such black hair! it is the blackest hair

That ever rippled over neck so fair. "Tell him old Pincher fretted many a day And moped, poor dog!'twas well he didn't die. Crouched by the roadside, how he watched the

And sniffled the travellers as they passed him Hail, rain, or sunshine, sure'twas all the same, He listened for the foot that never came.

"Tell him the house is lonesome-like and cold. The fire itself seems robbed of half its light; But may be 'tis my eyes are growing old,
And things look dim before my failing sight,
For all that, tell him 'twas myself that spun

The shirts you bring, and stiched them every "Give him my blessing, morning, noon, and night,

Tell him my prayers are offered for his good,
That he may keep his Maker still in sight,
And firmly stand as the brave father stood,
True to his name, his country and his God, Faithful at home, and steadfast still abroad. -Dublin Freeman.

SALE OF VALUABLE VIRGINIA LANDS.

VIRGINIA LANDS.

By virtue of a decree of the County Court of Loudoun, made in the chancery suit of Hopkins, Hull & Co. vs. Berkley, the undersigned, commissioners of sale, will offer at public auction, in front of the Court House, in Leesburg, Loudoun county, Va., on MONDAY, March 17th, 1873, the following REAL ESTATE, viz:

A VALUABLE TRACT OF TIMBER LAND, containing 408 acres, in Prince William county, adjoining the lands of Edmund Berkeley, Ewell, Bayley and others, about six miles from Thoroughfare station, on the O., A.

miles from Thoroughfare station, on the O., A. & M. R. R., and four miles from Aldie, on the Piedmont and Potomac Railroad-over firm roads of easy grade. This land is heavily tim-bered with chestnut, hickory and oak, and has upon it a vein of rich iron ore, running through its entire length.

Also the ONE UNDIVIDED HALF of one of the most valuable and productive estates in Virginia, known as "GOOSE POND," lying on the south bank of the Mattaponi river, in Caroline county, containing 1950 acres, of which about 950 is timber of original growth, and the rest productive, arable land, under cultivation. The timber consists of the varieties of oak, pine, walnut and hickory, and is considered by good judges equal to any body of timber land in the State. An experienced timber getter estimates the value of the hickory alone, for spokes, at double its assessed value. The pine and oak furnish the finest masts and ship timber. The arable land has heretofore been cultivated by intelligent and liberal agriculturists, and until the | Muslins. war, with extraordinary remunerative results. The estate was somewhat neglected during the and the owners have not had the means since of restoring it to its former productiveness. Two hundred acres of this land have been cropped continuously for nearly a century, and will now produce from 50 to 75 bushels of corn to the acre. Marl is abundant on the place, and has been liberally applied. The Mattaponi is a beautiful stream; its navigation was obstructed during the war, but at a slight expense it can be during the war, but at a slight expense it can be made navigable for vessels of 100 tons to the landing on the estate. "Goose Pond" adjoins the famous Corbin estate, "The Reeds," and also "Hays," the justly celebrated estate of Major Wm. N. Berkeley, separated from "Goose Pond" only by the Mattaponi river. The other half of "Goose Pond" is held for sale by General Eppa Hunton, of Warrenton, who will unite in the sale of the whole tract.

"HAYS," containing 1650 acres, will be offered for sale at the same time, by B. P. Noland, Trustee, under a deed of trust from Maj. Berkeley. These two estates forming a compact body of about 3600 acres of splendid land, offer the most desirable location in Virginia for a colony. The attention of capitalists, of agriculturalists and dealers in timber and lumber is invited to these lands. None more desirable, in quality or these lands. None more desirable, in quality or prices, are now in market. Terms of Sale: So much of the purchase-money to be paid in cash on the day of sale as will pay the costs of suit and expenses of sale; the residue upon a credit of one, two, three and four years, in equal instalments, bearing interest from the day of sale; the purchaser to execute his bonds for the deferred instalments, and the title to be retained till the purchase money is all paid.

MATTHEW HARRISON,

B. P. NOLAND, POWELL HARRISON, J. H. ALEXANDER, Commissioners of Sale.

BY AUTHORITY OF A DEED OF TRUST, dated the — day of —, and with the full consent of the present owner, Major W. N. Berkeley, I will offer, at the same time and place, and upon the same terms as the above, that splendid estate, in King William county, known as "HAYS," containing 1650 acres, adjoining "Goose Pond," the Mattaponi river being the dividing line. The timber upon this estate is of the same quality as that on "Goose tate is of the same quality as that on "Goose Pond," and the arable land of the same fertile character. It has been managed since the war better than Goose Pond, and is consequently now in better condition, and produces heavy crops of grain, tobacco and clover. The DWEL-LING HOUSE and out-buildings are complete and in good condition. B. P. NOLAND, Trustee. Loudoun county, feb 17-ts The sale of the above property has been adjourned until MONDAY, the 12th day of May, 1873, Court day.

W. B. NOLAND, Auct'r. COMMISSIONERS' SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—By virtue of a decree of the County Court of Loudoun, made at the August term, 1872, in the case of Hopkins, Hull & Co. vs. Berkeleys, the undersigned, commissioners of sale, will sell to the highest bidder, in front of the Court House, in Leesburg Vs. on MON-the Court House, in Leesburg, Va., on MON-DAY, May 12th, 1873, TWO VALUABLE TRACTS OF LAND, of which Charles F. Berkeley died seized and possessed, viz:

1st. "ENDFIELD," situated on the edge of Prince William county, 3 miles southeast of Aldie, containing about 265 acres of unusually fine timber land—mostly chesnut. About the same quantity of land was recently sold off of "Endfield," to Mr. Letterman, of Baltimore, who now owns it. There is a steam saw mill near this tract, which makes the timber very valuable.

2. A BEAUTIFUL FARM, in Caroline county, known as "REDCLYFFE," containing 5472 acres. This farm lies on the Pamonkey river, 2 miles from Hanover Court House, a depot on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad-and adjoins 'North Wales," the splendid estate of the late

Williams Carter. The neighborhood is a desirable one; the land is of good quality and easily cultivated. The DWELLING is large and well arranged, with fine lawn, garden. and orchard, and is altogether a most beautifu and desirable farm.

Terms of Sale: So much of the purchase money to be paid in cash on the day of sale as will pay the costs of suit and expenses of sale; the residue upon a credit of one, two, three and four years, in equal instalments, bearing interest. from the day of sale; the purchaser to execute his bonds for the deferred instalments, and the title to be retained till the purchase money is all paid.

THE HUMANE INVENTION OF THE McCLURE'S SELF-ADJUSTING, ANTI-FRICTION BACK-CHAIN AND TRAVELLER.

Read the following testimonials to its merits: Office Society for Prev. Cru. to Animals, New York, April 11, 1873. I have seen, and do most unqualifiedly approve of Mr. W. B. McClure's Anti-friction Chain and Traveller, for the use of cart horses, whereby the severe concussions and continual galling incident to the present mode of harnessing draft unimals are effectually overcome. This invention should be speedily in general use.

HENRY BERGH, President.

Alexandria, April 9, 1873. I have been using for more than four months the Self-adjusting, Anti-friction Back Chain and Traveller," and take pleasure in testifying that they are a perfect success. The saving in wear of the saddle alone is worth more than the cost of the chain, and the saving in labor and suffering to the horse is incalculable. JOHN LEATHERLAND, Coal Merch't.
